With reference to your letter No. Muz.1337 dated the 26th March 1923 requesting that orders of Government may be obtained for the continuance or otherwise of the menial establishment attached to the Engineering Section of the Muzrai Commissioner's Office, I am directed to state that out of the four peons of the Engineering Establishment one peon resigned his appointment before the office of the Muzrai Commissioner was created. ^{that} This place was not filled up ^{that} The remaining three peons were transferred to the Muzrai Commissioner's Office. I am further to ~~write~~ invite reference to G.O.2617-8/Muz.63-22-47 dated the 6th April 1923 fixing the menial staff of the Muzrai Commissioner's Office, thereby still further reducing the menial staff of ~~the Muzrai Commissioner's Office~~ ^{that} from the 1st July 1923.

I have etc.,

Rev. Secretary to Government.
